Captain States Deutschland is But One of Fleet for Regular Service

CAREFULLY GUARDED

Skipper Gives Newspapermen Details of Voyage and Construction of the Submarine

TO TAKE RUBBER AND METAL

BALTIMORE, Md., July 10.—The daring German seamen who brought the Submarine-Merchantman Deutschland across the Atlantic slept quietly tonight aboard their vessel, which lay moored to a carefully screened pier guarded by a strong squad of Baltimore police.

Captain Paul Koenig, the skipper, had delivered his papers to the North German Lloyd office, entered his vessel at the custom house as a commerce carrier and had presented to a German embassy official a packet of correspondence for Count Von Bernstorff.

Ready to Discharge Cargo.

Now the submarine is ready to discharge her million dollar cargo of dyestuffs and take on board for the return trip to Germany metal and rubber needed by the emperor's armies and navy.

The return merchandise is waiting on the dock and the time for leaving port will depend largely upon plans for eluding vigilant enemy cruisers expected to be waiting outside the entrance of Chesapeake Bay for the reappearance of the vessel.

One of Captain Koenig's first acts after he moved his ship up the harbor from quarantine early today, was to announce that the Deutschland was but one of a fleet of manmanned submarines built or building for a regular trans-Atlantic freight and mail service. He said the next to come would be the "Bremen" and that she might be looked for at some port along the coast within eight weeks.

Submits Craft to Inspection.
Anxious to establish promptly his peaceful character and to forestall investigation sought by diplomatic representatives of the allied powers the German captain submitted his craft to a thorough inspection by the surveyor of the port and an agent of the department of justice.

These officers as well as the customs inspectors and quarantine surgeons, agreed that there was no sign of armament of any description on board and that there was no doubt in their minds about the boat being entitled to the status of an ordinary merchantman. Guy V. Steele, the surveyor made a formal report to this effect to Port Collector Ryan who transmitted it to the treasury department at Washington.

Neither Captain Koenig nor agents of the North German Lloyd line to whom the boat is consigned evinced the slightest uneasiness over the suggestion that there might be diplomatic difficulties. This question had been given due consideration in advance and nothing was left undone to make the status of the ship unquestionable. It was stated on the authority of the captain that the only arms on board were four automatic pistols belonging to the officers and a sportsman's rifle for firing rockets.

Busy Day for Commander.
This was a busy day for the commander; beginning at dawn when the quarantine officers came aboard, received the bill of health issued by the American consul at Bremen, and passed the Deutschland into port.

Once safely alongside of his dock, Captain Koenig called his crew ashore and posed with them for moving picture and newspaper photographers. He laughed and chatted with the camera men and correspondents but refrained from discussing his achievement until after he had reported to the agents of his owners.

Later, at the office of the North German Lloyd, he issued a typewritten statement telling of the coming of other boats like Deutschland and asserting that his voyage had broken the British control of the seas. At the same time he submitted to an interview in which he described his 3,800 mile cruise from Helgoland to Chesapeake Bay. He denied reports that he had been chased off his course by enemy war ships, declaring that so far as he knew there was not an allied war craft in the Atlantic. The captain asserted further that his voyage had established the fact that a submarine of the type of the Deutschland could travel anywhere, 13,000 miles if necessary. He had no fears, he stated, of his ability to elude enemies that might be waiting for him off the Virginia capes when he starts his return trip.

"I will be able to submerge within the three mile limit and they

TESTIFY ALLEGED DUMMY EMPLOYS GOT $10,000

TESTIMONY IS ADDUCED BEFORE MASTER IN CHANCERY

Principal Witnesses are Clayborne S. Close, Referred to as One of the "Dummies" in Fergus' Petition and Auditor Brady.

Springfield, Ill., July 10.—Testimony intended to prove that four alleged dummy employees obtained from the state $10,000 which the 49th general assembly had refused to appropriate for the use of the vice investigation commission of which Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara was chairman was adduced here today before a master in chancery in a suit filed by J. B. Fergus against State Auditor Brady and State Treasurer Russell.

The suit seeks to restrain the auditor and treasurer from paying out certain funds and to recover funds already paid out which it is charged were not appropriated by the state legislature.

The principal witnesses were Clayborne S. Close, who is referred to as one of the "dummies" in Fergus' petition and Auditor Brady.

The other "dummies" according to the petition were Charles F. Trick, Ralph Pope and F. H. O'Hara, the latter a brother of the lieutenant governor.

Auditor Brady testified that his office had issued nine vouchers aggregating $10,000 to these four men but that he personally was acquainted only with F. H. O'Hara. F. S. Munro, attorney for Fergus in questioning Brady brought out the statement that there was a rule in the auditor's office against honoring vouchers unless they were accompanied by itemized expense accounts but that nine vouchers involved in the present suit also accompanied only by the explanation "for committee expenses" had been cashed.

Brady then added that the vouchers had been honored because they were approved by members of committees all of whom he knew to be "honorable gentlemen."

In two hours questioning Munro drew from Close, testimony that he had cashed vouchers aggregating $2,265 of which $962 was for "expenses of the vice commission," $565 for "sandwiches, coffee, newspapers, etc., for members of the senate," $555 for his own salary of $3 a day as messenger to the lieutenant governor; $25.50 for traveling expenses and $125 for "extras."

It was also brought out in Brady's testimony that in issuing a voucher for $1,922 to the committee to visit state educational institutions the state paid the railroad fare of more persons than there were members on the committee. Brady said that was not brought to his personal knowledge at the time.

DUNNE AND WATERWAY COMMISSION WIN FIRST SKIRMISH IN SUIT

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 10.—Governor Dunne and members of the Illinois State Waterway commission were victorious today in the first skirmish in the suit of State Representative William A. Hubbard seeking to restrain the completion of the Dunne waterway plan and the paying out by the state of any part of the several million dollars appropriated for the waterway.

Judge Jones in the Sangamon county circuit court sustained the demurrer of Attorney General Lucey to Hubbard's bill for an injunction and gave Hubbard two days in which to file a second amended bill.

STATE BOARD REVOKES LICENSE OF BETHEL HOLINESS ORPHANAGE

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 10.—The license of the Bethel Holiness Orphanage of this city was revoked by the state board of administration today following an investigation which revealed that small children had been kept at night for minor offenses. Neighbors told of the screams and sobbing of children heard nightly. Some of the orphans said they were confined in dark rooms until they declared their willingness to be "saved." The state board gave the seventeen children into the custody of Sheriff Knemeler and ordered him to find homes for them.

WINCHESTER REPORTS CASE OF INFANTILE PARALYSIS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 10.—Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, secretary of the Illinois State Board of Health tonight telegraphed the surgeon-general of the United States that 27 cases of infantile paralysis had been reported to the Illinois board and that in fourteen cases the diagnosis of the attending physician had been confirmed by investigators of the board. The remaining thirteen cases are under investigation. Seven new cases were reported today as follows:

One each at Virden, Winchester, LaMoille, Kirkwood and Chicago, and two at Quincy.

To Investigate Cases.
Quincy, Ill., July 10.—Dr. C. W. East of Galesburg, Ill., arrived in Quincy tonight, sent here by the state board of health to investigate two suspected cases of infantile paralysis. The investigation will be conducted tomorrow.

PRESIDENT WILSON SPEAKS AT DETROIT

Urges for Peace Reached By Mutual Understanding

DEFENDS OWN PARTY

Asserts Democrats Are as Much Interested in Prosperity of United States as Anybody

CANNOT DOUBT INTEREST

DETROIT, July 10.—President Wilson urged for peace reached by mutual understanding rather than force and defended the Democratic party as a friend of business in speeches today to enthusiastic Michigan audiences. Detroit streets were lined with thousands of persons who shouted greeting and waved American flags at him wherever he appeared, the hall in which he spoke to the world's salesmanship congress was jammed, an audience of thousands greeted him at the Ford Motor plant and tonight in Toledo another throng listened to his brief rear platform address.

Desires Permanent Peace.
"Peace," was the shouted response of the salesmanship audience when the president asked them what they desired when the present world struggles are at an end. And he added that "permanent peace" was his desire.

At a non-partisan luncheon in the Detroit Athletic Club the president sprang to the defense of the Democrats. A prominent Republican had told him during the day that he had been deriving pleasure from association with Democrats and the executive rejected the incident and declared that he long had enjoyed the friendship and companionship of Republicans, because being a teacher, he "would like to teach them something."

"We have been trying, some of us, for a good many years to teach in politics, as well as elsewhere, this lesson that we are all in the same boat," he said. "We have common interests and it is our business to understand and serve those common interests. The great difficulty that has confronted us, gentlemen, has often been that we have deliberately looked at these common interests from self chosen angles, which made them look as if some of us were separated from others and as if some of us wanted to depress business, for example and others wanted to exalt business."

"I dare say that you have noticed that the same necessity to make a living is imposed upon Democrats as Republicans and I dare say you are just as willing to make a good living as Republicans. Therefore it seems to me logically to follow, that I have been quoted as having no regard for logic, that Democrats are naturally as much interested in the business prosperity of the United States as anybody elsewhere. So that if you believe that they are not as fitted to guide it as other persons you cannot be doubting their intelligence."

Cites Federal Reserve Act.
The suspicion is beginning to dawn he added, that the average man, understands the business necessities of the country as well as the extraordinary man. "So I invite your thoughts," he continued, "in what I sincerely believe to be an entirely non-partisan spirit to the Democracy of business. An act was recently passed in congress that some of the most intelligent business men of this country earnestly opposed—men whom I knew, men whose character I trusted, men whose integrity I absolutely believed in. I refer to the federal reserve act by which we intended, and succeeded, in taking credit out of the control of a small number of men and making it available to everybody who had real commercial assets and the very men who opposed that act and opposed it conscientiously, now admit that it saved the country from a ruinous panic when the stress of war came on, and that it is the salvation of every average business man who is in the midst of the tides that I have been trying to describe."

"What does that mean, gentlemen? It means that you can get a settled point of view and can conscientiously oppose progress if you do not need progress yourself. That is what it means. I am not impugn the intelligence even of the men who opposed these things, because the same thing happens to every man if he is not of extraordinary make up, that he cannot see the necessity for a thing that he does not himself need. When you have abundant credit and control of credit you, of course, do not need that the area of credit should be broadened."

PRISONER HAS MEASLES.
Chicago, July 10.—Carl Shropshire of Creston, Ia., who was arrested here Friday on charges of forgery from Minneapolis was found to be suffering from measles as he was about to be taken north. As a result was taken to the county hospital instead.

TO ERECT DYE FACTORY.
Quincy, Ill., July 10.—The Monroe Drug company today announced plans for the erection of a dye factory here providing congress passes a tariff law sufficient to protect the industry. Ground has been leased, tentative orders for machinery placed and a chemist has been here for some time conducting experiments. The plant will be the fifth in the country, it is said.

DIES OF BURNS.
Ottawa, Ill., July 10.—Wygratta Kammerer, four years old, died today of burns caused by a sparkler July 4th.

ANNOUNCES ROSTER OF G. O. P. CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE
Republican Executive Committee and Six Progressives Compose Body

New York, July 10.—The roster of the campaign committee of the Republican national committee was announced late today. The campaign committee is composed of the Republican executive committee and six Progressives.

The members of the campaign committee are:
John T. Adams, Iowa, Republican; Everett Colby, New Jersey, Progressive; William Croker, California, Republican; W. W. Estabrook, New Hampshire, Republican; James R. Garfield, Ohio, Progressive; A. T. Hirt, Kentucky, Republican; R. B. Howell, Nebraska, Republican; Harold L. Ickes, Illinois, Progressive; Alvah H. Martin, Virginia, Republican; Herbert Parsons, New York, Republican; George W. Perkins, New York, Progressive; S. A. Perkins, Washington, Republican; Chester H. Rowell, Calif., Progressive; Oscar S. Strauss, New York, Progressive; Charles B. Warren, Michigan, Republican and Ralph E. Williams, Oregon, Republican.

James B. Reynolds of Washington, D. C. was named as secretary. Mr. Reynolds also is secretary of the national committee.

POLK AND ARREDONDO HOLD BRIEF CONFERENCE

TAKE NO DEFINITE STEPS TOWARD BEGINNING NEGOTIATIONS

Ambassador Transmits Further Advice From His Government Regarding Operations of Villa Bands Near Corralitos, Mexico.

Washington, July 10.—Acting Secretary Polk of the state department and Eliseo Arredondo, Mexican ambassador designate, conferred briefly today but in the absence of formal instructions to the ambassador from General Carranza, no definite steps were taken toward beginning the proposed negotiations for settlement of differences between the two governments.

The conference was an informal talk and followed the ambassador's visit to the department with further advice from his government regarding the operations of Villa bands near Corralitos, Mexico. The de facto authorities Mr. Arredondo said had secured more definite information to the effect that the bandits were headed toward Boquilla or some point near there on the Texas border. The ambassador renewed the warning previously given American military authorities and gave assurances that Carranza troops would make every effort to check the attempted raid.

The substance of the message was forwarded to General Funston. It contained no estimate of the bandit forces and made no mention of Villa himself.

Send 219 Illinoisans Back.

San Antonio, Texas, July 10.—Physical disqualification by the army medical board at Springfield, Ill., resulted today in 219 enlisted men and a few officers of the First and Second Regiments, Illinois National Guard being started homeward. Numerous applications for discharge under Secretary Baker's order releasing enlisted men have been prepared, but the order has not yet been published to the troops.

Rumors of Villa activities have inspired hope in the camp that the Illinois troops will soon see active service.

Chicago soldiers in "Camp Wilson" are "broke" if the flood of telegrams which have been going north in the last few days are any indication. Most of these telegrams are marked "Collect."

Thirty-six Illinois guardsmen, including six officers, are under treatment at the base hospital at Fort Sam Houston, it was stated today. The cases are said to be mild.

A large consignment of horses was furnished the Illinois field artillerymen today.

Officers May Work Out Plan.

San Antonio, Texas, July 10.—Without formal agreement it appeared probable today that the plan of a joint guarding of the border country proposed by General Funston and General Scott during their conferences at El Paso might be worked out by the officers commanding troops on opposite sides of the international line. General Bell at El Paso already has discussed with General Gonzales a plan of co-operative work and Captain A. V. Anderson commanding the American troops at Presidio talked with Colonel Rojas, commandant of the Mexican garrison at Ojinaga opposite Presidio of the best means of preventing raids.

ANNOUNCES ROSTER OF G. O. P. CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE
Republican Executive Committee and Six Progressives Compose Body

New York, July 10.—The roster of the campaign committee of the Republican national committee was announced late today. The campaign committee is composed of the Republican executive committee and six Progressives.

The members of the campaign committee are:
John T. Adams, Iowa, Republican; Everett Colby, New Jersey, Progressive; William Croker, California, Republican; W. W. Estabrook, New Hampshire, Republican; James R. Garfield, Ohio, Progressive; A. T. Hirt, Kentucky, Republican; R. B. Howell, Nebraska, Republican; Harold L. Ickes, Illinois, Progressive; Alvah H. Martin, Virginia, Republican; Herbert Parsons, New York, Republican; George W. Perkins, New York, Progressive; S. A. Perkins, Washington, Republican; Chester H. Rowell, Calif., Progressive; Oscar S. Strauss, New York, Progressive; Charles B. Warren, Michigan, Republican and Ralph E. Williams, Oregon, Republican.

James B. Reynolds of Washington, D. C. was named as secretary. Mr. Reynolds also is secretary of the national committee.

No announcement was made as to who will be chosen as treasurer. Neither was a date set for formal notification to Mr. Hughes of his nomination. It was learned, however, that the time probably will be July 31st, and the place Carnegie Hall, New York.

PRISONER HAS MEASLES.
Chicago, July 10.—Carl Shropshire of Creston, Ia., who was arrested here Friday on charges of forgery from Minneapolis was found to be suffering from measles as he was about to be taken north. As a result was taken to the county hospital instead.

FRENCH ADVANCE TOWARD PERONNE

Occupy Summit Known as Hill 97, Which Commands the Somme

PENETRATE WOOD

Teutons Succeed After Launching Six Separate Attacks on British at Trones Wood

AUSTRIANS REPULSE ITALIANS

The French in their operations south of the Somme have advanced to within a mile of Peronne at present held strongly by the Germans. They have occupied the summit known as Hill 97, which commands the Somme to the southeast of Biaches and have strengthened their positions between Biaches and Barleux.

Germans Penetrate Wood
Desperate fighting has occurred between the British and the Germans at Trones wood against which the Germans launched six desperate attacks. Five of these were repulsed according to the British war office, but the sixth was successful in that it permitted the Germans to penetrate the wood where latest reports said the fighting continued.

The British troops however made some gains in the neighborhood of Oveliers and Labelette and in a particularly powerful attack on the German positions in the Maist wood succeeded in securing some ground where previously the resistance has been too strong to break.

The forces of the German crown prince are still pounding heavily against the French positions at Froide Terre, Fleury and the Fumad wood, in the Verdun sector, but so far as the official statements show the actions have been confined to bombardments.

There has apparently been no halt of the Russian advance toward Kovle in Volhynia. The German defenses along the Stokhod river have been unable to stay the progress of the Russians who, the strongly opposed have crossed the river at various points.

In Midst of Terrific Struggle
The latest communication from Russian general headquarters shows that the two opposing armies are in the midst of a terrific struggle, for it mentions that "the enemy rallied and made desperate efforts to maintain his positions on the left bank of the river."

Along this line the battle is still in progress. In the Divva sector and east of Baranovichi the Germans have delivered strong counterattacks and are undertaking extensive offensive operations. The fighting continues with unabated fury, the Austrian official statement describing the repulse of Alpine forces between the Erenta and the Elsch rivers, more than 800 Italian dead being left before the Austrian trenches.

British forces under General Smuts have occupied Tanga, the second port in importance on the coast of German East Africa and the terminus of a German railroad.

LORIMER TELLS DEPOSITORS HE INTENDS TO MAKE GOOD

CHICAGO, July 10.—William Lorimer, former United States senator was applauded tonight when he faced an audience of nearly 4,000 people, most of whom had lost money in the failure of the LaSalle Street Trust and Savings Bank and subsidiary institutions and told the audience that he intended to make good. He declared that the "closing of the bank was the result of a four year old conspiracy," he proposed to use every possible means to reimburse every depositor regardless of personal responsibility.

"The institution was closed without order and without consultation between those who closed it and their superiors," declared Mr. Lorimer. He then said that the financial embarrassment of the various Lorimer contracting companies was due to his son having turned in every available dollar to the bank instead of bolstering up the Lorimer interests with cash.

The former senator then went into a detailed discussion of his plans.

BEGIN ARGUMENT IN CASE OF ORPET

DEFENDANT HEARS CHARGES SERVED UP IN COHERENT SEQUENCE

Orpet Remains Calmly in His Chair Throughout Day—Mrs. Taylor, at Whose Home Orpet Lodged While at Madison, Occupies Seat at Side of Defendant.

Waukegan, Ill., July 10.—William H. Orpet, who for a month had heard charges and insinuations made against him piece meal by witnesses in his trial for the alleged murder of Marion Lambert, had them served up in coherent sequence today. He remained calmly in his chair throughout the long hot day. His mother was in her usual seat by his side, and on the other side sat a friend of unusual interest—Mrs. Edwin Taylor at whose home he lodged while attending the University of Wisconsin at Madison.

Mrs. Taylor was one of the Wisconsin witnesses wanted by the state and none of whom responded. Mrs. Taylor entered court today, secure in the fact that it was too late to call her to the stand. She took pains to show friendship for her former lodger, and the latter seemed cheered by her presence.

Attorney Eugene M. Runyard began the argument against the defendant when court opened and finished fifteen minutes after the regular adjournment hour.

From time to time counsel for the defense made objection to his alleged departure from evidence in the record and on several occasions Judge Donnelly hailed him back into channel laid out by testimony.

The attorney cited numerous authorities of circumstantial evidence attempting particularly to show that it was not necessary for the state to trace the cyanide of potassium which caused Marion's death.

The absence of motive for murder alleged by the defense was the subject of repeated attacks by the lawyer.

"You must bear in mind, gentlemen of the jury, that what would not provide a motive for you or for me might easily furnish one to this selfish and callous youth who, without a qualm, left the body of the girl who had been his sweetheart lying in the snow," asserted the lawyer. Motive, he said, was found in the fact that Marion's exposure meant exposure to Orpet and that entailed the finish of his career at the university, the breaking of his engagement to Celestia Youker and strained relations with his parents.

"The girl he had loved in June he hated in December," continued Mr. Runyard. "She stood, as he viewed it, across the pathway of his desires. He was much alone at Madison and by the end of January she loomed so large an obstacle to his distorted vision that he determined and carefully planned her death."

The speaker referred to the disordered bed in Orpet's room in Madison and the alibi letters as damaging evidences of guilt.

The attorney also asserted that the defendant knew that Marion was dead when he fled from the woods.

BURLINGTON DROPS OUT OF THE CENTRAL ASSOCIATION

BURLINGTON, Ia., July 10.—Burlington today dropped out of the Central Association because of poor attendance and an apparent lack of interest on the part of the people of this city. Burlington was the oldest member of the league but for several years has been on the verge of quitting.

The franchise and club was turned over to the league tonight and President Justice has ordered Dick Rohn, manager, to take the team to Waterloo where it is scheduled to play.

Three players, Harry Shanley, Harmon and pitcher Baileley, were sold to Cedar Rapids and should report to that city tonight. It is understood that Ottumwa, Iowa, will take over the franchise.

CENTRAL ILLINOIS COUNTRY CLUBS ASSOCIATION ELECTS

DANVILLE, Ill., July 10.—The following officers were elected at the annual business meeting of the Central Illinois Country Clubs association held here tonight:

President—Dr. William Barnes, Decatur.

First vice-president—A. R. Samuel, Danville.

Second vice-president—George Monroe, Bloomington.

Secretary—Edgar Barnes, Springfield.

Treasurer—W. A. Hammer, Decatur.

Decatur was unanimously chosen as the 1917 convention city.

DISEASE NOT EPIDEMIC OUTSIDE OF NEW YORK

Washington, July 10.—Answers received today by the public health service in response to inquiries regarding the prevalence of infantile paralysis showed that the disease is not epidemic outside of New York. It was estimated tonight there were not more than 75 cases throughout the country other than in New York and this number, according to E. A. Sweet who has charge of the inquiry is about normal for July. Several states reported no cases and the average per state was not more than three.

REVENUE MEASURE PASSES THE HOUSE

Several Amendments Are Adopted During Closing Hours of Debate

REPEALS STAMP TAXES

One Amendment Cuts Salaries of Members of the Tariff Commission to $7,500 Annually

CARRY ANTI-DUMPING CLAUSE

WASHINGTON, July 10.—The administration's omnibus revenue bill creating a tariff commission, imposing a protective tariff on dyestuffs, repealing present stamp taxes and providing for new taxes on incomes, inheritances and war munitions profits, passed the house late today by a vote of 240 to 140.

During the closing hours of debate several amendments, providing for elimination of the bankers' tax and modifying the tariff commission section, were adopted over the opposition of Democratic leaders. On the final roll call the Democrats voted solidly for the bill and were joined by 34 Republicans, five progressive Republicans, one independent and one Socialist.

The amendments adopted cut the salaries of members of the tariff commission from $10,000 to $7,500 annually; struck out the provision under which no member or former member of congress could serve on the commission and provided a single appropriation of $300,000 to pay the commission the first year instead of the bill's stipulation of a continuing annual appropriation of that amount. The entire section levying a tax of one dollar for each $1,000 of capital, surplus and undivided profits held by bankers was stricken out.

Many amendments proposed by the ways and means committee also were adopted including one under which cigarette manufacturers must pay a special tax of three cents for every 10,000 cigarettes.

Among Republicans who voted for the bill were Dowell, Good, Green, Ramsmeier and Sweet, Iowa; among the five Progressive-Republicans was Copley, Illinois.

A final Republican stand against the measure was led by Representative Forney, ranking Republican member of the ways and means committee, who moved that it be recommitted, with instructions to "amend it so as to raise an equitable portion of the required revenue from a protective tariff sufficient to protect adequately American industry and American labor and to be so adjusted as to prevent undue exactions by monopolies or trusts, paying particular attention to the conditions inevitable at the close of the present European war with a view to insuring the industrial independence of the United States."

Democratic Leader Kitchin made a point of order against the motion and was sustained by Speaker Clark whose ruling was upheld by the house on an appeal by Republican Leader Mann. The bill which now goes to the senate increases the surtax on incomes, ranging from an additional one percent on incomes between $20,000 and $40,000 to ten percent additional on those above $50,000 and taxes transfers of estates valued at $50,000 or more and net profits of war munitions manufacturers, with an exemption of those having less than ten percent profit. The new taxes are expected to yield $197,000,000 annually. The tariff commission would be composed of five members, no more than three to be of the same political party and would have broad powers of investigation. The bill also carries an anti-dumping provision to protect American producers from unfair foreign trade practices.

FORCED TO ABANDON FLIGHT—ILLINOIS

Dallas, Texas, July 10.—After completing flight from Dayton, Ohio, to Fort Worth, Texas, in a biplane, Lieut. W. P. Young of the Aero Squadron attached to the First New York Infantry was forced today to abandon the flight on account of engine trouble. He crated his machine at Fort Worth, shipping it to Brownsville.

The Status of Militiamen.

A clearer understanding is coming now about the legal status of a militiaman declining to take the federal oath. No soldier who originally signed the state contract can be forced to take the federal oath under the new federalization act. Upon his refusal he retains the same status that he had. Under the old law he could be called out for service at any place within federal jurisdiction but could not be sent to a foreign country. On the other hand, the soldier who takes the federal oath can be sent anywhere just as is true of members of the regular army. There have recently been a number of instances of militiamen who have declined to take the federal oath, but these circumstances are not likely to recur. For men who enlist from this time forth in the state service will understand that they are expected to take the federal oath also and if they are unwilling will not be likely to enter the service at all.

Truth in Business

The keynote of the world's salesmanship congress in session at Detroit is truth. Delegates to the congress occupied pulpits in many of the churches in Detroit Sunday, and the slogan of the congress was entirely fitted to the pulpits. There have been great advances in the principles of business management during the past few years and nowhere is that more apparent than in the demand which has grown up for truth in advertising. This is only one part of the development and as business is built on confidence, so the world more and more recognizes that the essential principles of business call for men of honesty and the strongest integrity. Long ago it became an axiom that "honesty is the best policy," but only in more recent years has the business world come into the full appreciation that there are other and more serious reasons for honesty than that of mere policy.

The German Sea Achievement.

The German submarine, the Deutschland has arrived in the United States after a journey of 4,180 miles. For much of that great distance it was a perilous journey and the commander and his crew were continuously on the watch for foes afloat and under the waves. The submarine, it is said, was pursued by boats of the allies mile after mile, but the Deutschland came thru unharmed and brings to the United States a cargo of dyestuffs greatly needed.

The Deutschland's journey is a great achievement. No doubt it was undertaken as much rather to show to England, "the mistress of the sea," the daring and audacity of German seamen, the accomplishments of German engineers. The incident further

CAMPAIGN WHISKERS

The statesman Hughes, as all men know, lets his alfalfa always grow; no richer growth has been produced, and there the robins come to roost. And Fairbanks too who hopes to win, has ballast on his shapely chin, and Marshall wears a long mustache, to strain his soup and corn beef hash in this thought. There are no sideboards in the lot. More proudly could our name be wave, if all the candidates would shave, for whiskers indicate a mind unfitted for a statesman's grind. I greatly fear one can't command the confidence of this broad land, or whiskers have a place or part. Yet there is solace in this hunch: There are no sideboards in the bunch. I view this summer's thrilling fight with more of rapture and delight if all the candidates would go to barbershops, where artists mow the spinach off for fifteen cents, and make men look like human gent. I can't whoop for those who wear a package of ingrowing hair. Yet this one fact must be allowed: There are no sideboards in the crowd.

DATES IN ILLINOIS HISTORY.

July 11, 1718—The French council of state issued an ordinance regulating the beaver trade in the Mississippi Valley.

nishes new proof of the effectiveness of German methods, if any new proof be needed. The arrival of the submarine was feared for a time might present new complications for the U. S., but an inspection made by U. S. officials showed that the Deutschland must properly be considered a merchant vessel and entitled to treatment as such. The dyestuffs are greatly needed in this country, and while it is not likely that a great many expeditions like that of the Deutschland will be attempted or accomplished, the U. S. has at least one needed cargo of dyes and the world "has been shown."

If as the commander of the Deutschland has intimated this submarine is one of a fleet being built for the merchant service and the Deutschland feat can be repeatedly duplicated then the new submarine plan may be looked upon as a distinct feature of the war and the blockade in the North Sea may thus become of minor effect.

The Candidates Must Remember

Every day the politicians and candidates for office are getting a more thorough understanding of the place which women will have in the approaching presidential elections. The national woman's suffrage association is partially responsible for the dissemination of this knowledge for they have been compiling statistics about previous elections and making their statements for the enlightenment of the present candidates. There will be at least four million women eligible to vote at the presidential election next November, and it has been discovered that at least six presidents of the United States have been elected by a smaller number of votes than those which the suffrage states will control in the next electoral college. The states now having woman's suffrage will cast more than ninety votes in the electoral college.

The statistics prove that President Adams, Jefferson, John Quincy Adams, Taylor, Hayes and Cleveland were elected by a majority of thirty-seven votes or less. In other words, in these six elections the nation's presidents were chosen by a smaller number of votes than the woman's suffrage states control now. The last of the six named is Cleveland. That was in 1884, and he defeated James G. Blaine by just thirty-seven votes. Therefore it does not take a great mathematician to indicate the power that the women will hold next November.

Lorimer Faces Bank Depositors

William Lorimer in Chicago last night addressed a gathering of men and women depositors of the defunct LaSalle Street bank who lost money when the bank failed. Altho Mr. Lorimer was culpable because guilty at least of ignorance of the bank affairs, there was something consistently manly in the manner in which he faced those who had lost money thru their confidence in him. When the gathering of creditors was requested by Mr. Lorimer it was with the statement that each one of them should have the opportunity of saying just what he thought, and that there need be no mincing of words. The former banker called the gathering in order not only to face the depositors but to tell them of his earnest belief that out of the wreckage of bank assets that he believes if given a few years' time that he can pay off every dollar of indebtedness. He assured them that every dollar he could make other than that required for the support of his family would certainly go to the discharge of those obligations.

It is in the affairs of the Gallaher Construction company that Mr. Lorimer believes that he can make thousands to apply on his debt. Those somewhat familiar with his affairs are also sanguine that if the Gallaher Construction company holdings are turned over to Lorimer that a worth while showing will be made. This company undertook to build and finance the Southern Traction company, and when the European war came on their plan of finance was disarranged and the big enterprise went to pieces because of the lack of financial support. At any rate, Lorimer has faced his creditors and has given evidence of an earnest desire to save his friends from losses.

MORTUARY

Mellvaine.

A telegram received Sunday afternoon brought the news of the death of Thomas Mellvaine, father of Mrs. H. D. Dobyns of this city. Mr. Mellvaine's death occurred at his home in Tuscola as a result of typhoid fever. It will be remembered that this disease has been epidemic in Tuscola for a number of weeks and more than sixty persons are sick. Mr. Mellvaine who was about seventy-two years of age, was born at Gap, Pa. When a young man he became a resident of Tuscola and spent all the remainder of his life there. As a boy of sixteen he enlisted in the Union army and had been in a number of the most important battles of the great conflict.

The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church at Tuscola and had served as elder for a number of years. He was a man of somewhat retiring disposition but the strength and worth of his character were recognized by all who knew him. As a citizen of Tuscola, he was identified with every movement for the betterment of the community and his life was in every way exemplary. As a young man he was married to Miss Sallie Ervin, who survives him together with his daughter, Mrs. Dobyns. One son, Brown Mellvaine, who was known to a great many Jacksonville people while a student at Illinois college died about twelve years ago. The funeral is to be held in Tuscola Wednesday.

J. H. Jones of Pisgah was a business visitor in the city yesterday afternoon.

APPELLATE COURT REVERSES CIRCUIT COURT IN TODD CASE

Messrs. Samuel and Thompson Secure New Order in Case Involving Insurance.

The appellate court yesterday reversed the finding made by Judge Burton in the Morgan county court in the case of Ivaloe Todd vs. the Prudential Life Insurance company, and remanded the same for trial. This case was heard in the circuit court. Paul Samuell and Paul P. Thompson appearing in behalf of the complainant, Ivaloe Todd, a sister of Edith Todd.

The defendant company refused payment of the policy of $500 held on the life of Edith Todd and naming Ivaloe Todd as the beneficiary. Miss Todd died a few days after the policy had been issued and the company charged that she was not in good health at the time the policy was delivered and misrepresented the facts about her health.

When the case was in progress in the circuit court Judge Burton instructed the jury to bring in a verdict in behalf of the company. Attorneys Samuel and Thompson prepared an appeal to the appellate court and yesterday they had the satisfaction of information that the higher court had reversed the finding of the circuit court.

MEXICO AND "PROFIT"

Editor of the Journal:

We note a statement, editorially, in the Journal (Sunday) concerning that the rule of Diaz was the most beneficent yet known.

We do not question the benevolence of dictator Diaz, but rather believe his generosity was only the extension of legalized privilege and plunder instituted for the special benefit of the home and foreign aristocrats of wealth.

A close study of the history of Mexico reveals that it is this element of labor exploiters and human parasites who are the instigators of riot and civil war for the very purpose of suppressing every appearance of democratic liberty, and the inauguration of justice.

Read the constitutional document of 1821 and it can be readily seen that the bone of contention is that the masses in Mexico desire to set up a Republic based upon the ideas interlarding that document. The main demands being land reforms.

The framers of that historical document were so scientific in their view of the evolution of modern industrialism and the establishment of a fraternal social order, that the average "outer court" student who depends upon a subdued press and history, cannot understand.

The student of social science or

Socialism can more fully appreciate and interpret the conflict of classes, masses, and nations, because of the hold on nature key of analysis—the key of economics, and psychology.

In the market ways where labor's commodities are exchanged and great surplus values are created we find a competition has been developed that has become national in nature which threatens the life of the human race. Master minds must soon arise sufficient to turn the masses into the way of a socialized industrial order, or they will overturn the present order with violence as already being witnessed especially in Europe.

Summing up the whole controversy that besets individual, group and nation, we find the burly old god of profit.

Again we repeat, on pedestals at the throne of every kingdom on the earth sits Privilege and Plunder. At their right hands is the Army and Navy.

The question—in the cry of "my country" are we being deceived? Look close, and behold "business," "religion," and "patriotism" allied in a bold conspiracy to destroy the human race.

Capitalism (the present order of anarchy) must give way to Socialism

(the New Order Society). Then we shall have Peace, good will and the Brotherhood of Man—International

Fraternity in commercial conduct.

Fred Zumwalt.

Jacksonville, Ill.

BLAZE AT DUNLAP HOTEL

The fire department was called to the Dunlap hotel about noon

Sunday where fire had started in an abandoned flue. The department made a quick response and the blaze was extinguished with the chemical without material damage. A spark from the smoke stack must have fallen down the flue and caused the fire.

When the alarm was given all of the guests were at dinner and excitement prevailed for a time. Even after the department left the hotel some of the more excited ones were carrying out trunks and suit cases.

Home Baking Reduces
Cost of Living

THE U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in Experiment Station Bulletin No. 142 says that ten cents worth of wheat supplies almost three times as much protein and ten times as much energy as round steak, and with some other cuts of meat the difference is even greater.

If then, one really desires to reduce her weekly meat and grocery bills, she need only make more use of her oven.

Who ever heard man, woman or child complain that good home-made biscuits, muffins, cake and cookies appeared on the table too often? Instead the tendency is "to make a meal of them" and the variety is so great that something you bake yourself could well be the chief feature of every meal.

Home Baking is Simplified by the Use of K C Baking Powder

With K C, you can make things moist and rich yet have them light and feathery, wholesome and digestible. Biscuits may be mixed the night before and baked fresh for breakfast. Muffins need not be dry and heavy. You can make a cake so light that you can hardly get it out of the pan whole, yet it will not fall.

K C is not like the old fashioned baking powder. It is double acting and continues to give off leavening gas until the dough is cooked through. K C is sold at a fair price—a large can for 25 cents. This would be no object if strength and purity were sacrificed, but every can is fully guaranteed under State and National Pure Food laws and to please. We take all the chances. Your money back if you do not get better results with K C than any baking powder you ever used.

Include a can in your next grocery order, try some of the new recipes that appear in this paper from time to time. Then you will have gone far toward solving this vexing "Cost of Living" problem.

FUNERALS

Huckstep

Funeral services for Dr. J. M. Huckstep were held from Centenary church Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the Rev. W. P. Bowman, pastor of the Methodist church at Concord assisted by the Rev. G. W. Flagge, pastor of Centenary church. Miss Myrtle Larimore at the organ played two numbers, one preceding the service and one at the close.

Rev. Flagge then offered the scripture and then offered prayer. At the close of the prayer he announced that the message would be given by the Rev. W. P. Bowman of Concord.

Rev. Bowman had been a friend of Dr. Huckstep for 29 years. He referred feelingly to his coming to the Illinois conference when he made his home with the Huckstep family.

"Dr. Huckstep," the speaker said "believed in God. He was a man of God and during his entire life he served the Master unselfishly. He was always ready to do the work of the church and the minister of any church to which he belonged could always rest assured of his hearty support."

The minister also referred to Dr. Huckstep's loyalty to his country when the call came in 1869. "The time of my departure is at hand. I have fought the good fight, I have kept the faith," was a passage of scripture Rev. Bowman said that might well be used in reference to the life of Dr. Huckstep.

In closing his remarks Rev. Bowman told of his last visit to Dr. Huckstep at his home in Oak Park just after he was stricken. Dr. Huckstep's last words to him were of his pleasure to have served God and to have done something to make the world better. Rev. Bowman then offered prayer. The services at the grave were in charge of Matt Starr Post G. A. R.

The flowers were cared for by Mrs. Richard Glenn and Mrs. Stanley Post.

Interment was in Diamond Grove cemetery the bearers being Mr. R. F. Fitch, H. C. Clement, Charles Thompson, O. A. Keemer, C. E. McDougall and C. Riggs Taylor.

Services for Dr. Huckstep were also held at the Euclid avenue church in Oak Park Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in charge of the pastor Rev. G. T. Nesmith assisted by a former pastor of the church, the Rev. A. M. Pennewell of Morris, and Rev. C. M. Morton, chaplain of Phil Sheridan post G. A. R. of Oak Park and also chaplain of the Borrowed Time club.

Preceding the service was an organ number, "Asa's Death," and at the close "Flee as a Bird," was given.

The honorary bearers were: Col. H. M. Brinkerhoff, H. H. Stoddard, W. M. Hilton, J. B. Stevens, E. Wiley Taylor and W. T. Sikes.

The active bearers were H. A. Tay-

Beavers

Funeral services for Robert Beavers were held from the residence near Litchberry Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock in charge of the Rev. Hale, pastor of the Primitive Baptist church. There was a large gathering of relatives and friends which attested the high regard in which the deceased was held by his neighbors and friends. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Miss Cora Graham, Mrs. Wallace Brockman, and Messrs T. H. Rapp and A. C. Robinson. The flowers were cared for by Miss Ethel Sorrells, Grace Myers and Mabel Heining. Interment was in Arcadia cemetery the bearers being J. G. Myers, E. A. Deaton, Henry Sorrells, J. R. Black, W. H. Crum and W. T. Dodsworth.

REPORT PERSHING'S HEADQUARTERS SIXTY MILES SOUTH OF BURDER

EL PASO, Texas, July 10.—Con-sored despatches reaching here from the field headquarters of the American expedition in Mexico said that General Pershing's headquarters are nearly one hundred miles north of the Hearst ranch at Babicora reported taken over by the Carranzista government. In military circles this was taken as an intimation that the first of the expeditionary troops will recross the border within the next few days. It was pointed out that a point one hundred miles north of Babicora ranch would lie about sixty miles south of the American frontier.

REPORTS BEING SWINDLED OUT OF $5,400 BY ALLEGED WIRE TAPPERS

CHICAGO, July 10.—Sven M. Werner of Petersburg, Nebr., reported to the police today that he had been swindled out of $5,400 by five alleged wire tappers in Gary, Ind. He recognized pictures of three of them in the detectives' bureau. They induced him, he said, to put $3,000 each on two races. He won both races and when he demanded his winnings, they said he would have to put up the remaining $3,000 to show that he could have paid had he lost. Werner returned to his home, obtained $2,400 from the bank and borrowed $3,000 from his son. This money he turned over to the men. They in turn told him he would have to go to St. Paul, Minn., for his winnings where they would meet him. He did so waiting there for several days. Then he came here and told the police.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER IS 77.

New York, July 10.—John D. Rockefeller, who is popularly supposed to have accumulated a few more millions than any other man in the world has ever succeeded in piling up, is seventy-seven years old today, having been born in the village of Richford, N. Y., July 8, 1839. Mr. Rockefeller is as keen mentally as ever, while evidence of his physical vigor is afforded by his daily appearance on the golf links. On his birthday anniversary today he was the recipient of congratulations from the members of his family and from many friends, who wrote or telephoned.

CAMPAIGN OF CLEANLINESS IS CONTINUED WITH INCREASED VIGOR

New York Health Officials More Optimistic of Their Ability to Control Spread of Infantile Paralysis.

New York, July 10.—The campaign of cleanliness being waged by all city departments to wipe out the epidemic of infantile paralysis here was continued today with increased vigor. Hundreds of violators of the sanitary code were brought to court and fined for disregarding health department instructions, particularly in territories where the epidemic is most pronounced.

There were fewer deaths in the twenty four hours ending at 10 o'clock this morning only 14 being reported. The number of new cases in the twenty four hour period, however, increased to 103. Thus far the epidemic has caused 238 deaths and the number infected is 1,033.

Health department officials were more optimistic tonight of their ability to control the spread of the disease. The co-operative work of government health experts, city officials, several of the most noted physicians of the country and the railroads had increased the general confidence that the epidemic soon will be checked.

The National American Women Suffrage association today placed its entire organization machinery at the disposal of the government.

DUNNE ADDRESSES PICTURE EXHIBITORS

Chicago, July 10.—Governor Edward F. Dunne today told delegates to the motion picture exhibit league of America which at the opening of its convention here that a state motion picture censor was not required in Illinois as long as the exhibitors and producers observed the ethics of the law and wishes of the public in their productions showing no pictures classified as undesirable.

REPORT FOUR SUSPECTED CASES

Chicago, July 10.—Four cases of suspected infantile paralysis were reported to the city health commissioner today. The commissioner pointed out that this did not necessarily mean that these were infantile paralysis cases, pointing out that on Saturday suspected cases were reported and only one case showed symptoms of the disease.

SUBMARINE READY TO DISCHARGE CARGO

cannot catch me after that," he said.

During nearly the entire voyage to America, said Captain Koenig, the Deutschland traveled on the surface. Once she submerged for ten hours and lay during that time on the bottom of the English channel to escape British destroyers.

Remained at Helgoland Nine Days.

Captain Koenig piloted his vessel out of Bremen on June 14th. He went directly to Helgoland, remaining there nine days. On June 23rd., the submarine slipped away from the island fortress and the trip which ended in Baltimore today was begun.

After completing the formalities with the port authorities, Captain Koenig was invited to luncheon as the guest of honor of the German club and there delivered to Haniel VonHaimhausen, counselor of the German embassy, the packet of official correspondence destined to Count VonBernstorff. The counselor had journeyed here from New York, was a guest with the Deutschland's master at the luncheon, and went back to New York tonight.

"I have come here," said the embassy's representative, "to present the personal compliments of Count Bernstorff to Captain Koenig and to congratulate him upon his wonderful achievement. The ambassador has no official interest in the Deutschland. Captain Koenig has turned over to me some correspondence which I am taking back to the ambassador but I have no knowledge of its nature."

Captain Koenig ate a hearty meal at the luncheon—fresh vegetables and fresh meat—the first he had tasted since his departure from Bremen.

Captain Koenig then returned to the offices of his agents and meeting newspapermen, furnished them with details of his voyage and the construction of the submarine.

Had Several Weeks of Practice.

Before beginning our trip," said Captain Koenig, "we had several weeks of practice in our vessel in the Baltic sea that the members of the crew might thoroughly familiarize themselves with her. We left Bremen without any ceremonies. Of course that was necessary because the voyage was to be kept secret. Outside of the owners and the admiralty no one knew where we were going except Mr. Fee, the American consul at Bremen, from whom it was necessary to obtain our bill of health. I am sure Mr. Fee kept the secret well."

"When we got to Helgoland we decided that it was best to stay there a little while. We could not be absolutely sure that news of our departure might not reach the British admiralty and we thought it prudent to tarry and to fool the British ships if they were hunting especially for us."

"During the time we spent in the waters of Helgoland we continued our practice and shifted the ballast and cargo to trim her properly for the long voyage."

Saw Many Hostile Ships.

"Coming thru the North Sea we saw hostile destroyers, cruisers and patrol boats and submerged five times. I do not think the enemy vessels saw us. You know in a submarine we can see ships a long while before they can see us. In the English Channel we submerged six times in all and in the Atlantic four, the last occasion being when we sighted a United Fruit company's steamer the day before our arrival at the cape. We passed her about thirty miles out. I do not believe the ship, which was flying an American flag knew we were in the neighborhood."

"When we left Bremen we had 180 tons of fuel oil aboard and there are now 95 tons left in the tanks. We had twenty tons of water when we started and still have ten left."

"Our voyage proves that a submarine of the Deutschland type can go anywhere in the world. She has a cruising radius of 13,000 miles."

Captain Koenig was asked to explain what devices the Deutschland had for finding her way under water and avoiding danger.

"We have two," he said. "One is the microphone, the other a sounding apparatus. With the microphone you can hear submarine bell buoys six miles away and the propellers of ships still further. By the tone of the noise made by the screw of a vessel you can tell her type. A destroyer makes a loud hum, a cruiser's is lower."

"The sounding apparatus can be worked while we are running submerged and is let down thru the bottom of the boat thru a tube equipped with valves. In this submarine we can do everything under the surface that we can do on it. We can drop anchor while submerged, cruise below the surface four days if necessary or lie still on the bottom until our food and water gives out. And you can believe me that we can carry a large quantity of both."

Captain Koenig was asked how he and his men employed their time while making the voyage.

Phonographs furnish entertainment. "Well," said he, "we had phonographs. They were a source of much entertainment. We have about one hundred records. There were some American ragtime songs, some marches and some dances. Selections from Peer Gynt in what we played to pass away the time at the bottom of the English Channel. No we didn't have a record of Tipperary."

The captain seemed to enjoy the reference to the English marching song.

"Of course," he continued, "all the men smoked while they were on deck. It is forbidden to smoke below deck in a submarine. There is the danger of fire and then, you know, there are all kinds of tobacco, good and bad. We read a lot, too. I have aboard a library of forty volumes. There is Shakespeare, who wouldn't have Shakespeare in a library. I'll bet Shakespeare is more widely read in Germany than it is in England and then I had some of Bert Hart, W. W. Jacobs' sea tales, Mark Twain's Innocents Abroad and Charles Dickens. Oh yes, I have a very fine English library. No, I have not got Jules Verne's 'Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea.' It requires too much imagination to read that."

"I am the oldest man on the boat. I'm forty nine and the youngest member of the crew is twenty one. Nearly all of us have left wives and children behind in Germany. I am a native of Saxony, but my home has been in Bremen since 1883."

Captain Koenig was today the recipient of hundreds of congratulatory telegrams from all sections of the country. Many of them came from German societies who were anxious to have the commander and his officers as guests at dinners and other functions. The local German colony is already making arrangements to give the crew a celebration and an outing.

Expect to Settle Questions Soon.

Washington, July 10.—Federal officials believed tonight that the questions of international law raised by the arrival of the German super-submarine Deutschland might soon be cleared away.

A preliminary report during the day from Collector Ryan at Baltimore, indicated that the vessel was purely a merchant ship, devoid of any peculiar status because of the unprecedented manner of her trip across the Atlantic. Should this indication be borne out by the more detailed examination that will be made, officials see no reason why diplomatic complications should develop. There was no prospect tonight that the allied governments were preparing to protest in the event that the Deutschland is held to be a merchantman.

The navy department today detailed Captain C. F. Hughes to aid the Baltimore collector in examining the submarine. An officer familiar with submarine construction will accompany Captain Hughes, but they will act merely in an advisory capacity and the attitude of the government will be determined by the final report to be made by the collectors.

LIVESTOCK SHIPPERS LEAGUE WILL NOT FIGHT FEDERAL PROBE

Attorney States Organization Has Nothing Whatsoever to do With Any Congressional Investigation.

Chicago, July 10.—On July 6th, a dispatch was sent from Chicago stating that "the executive committee of the National Livestock Shippers' Protective League met here today to plan a fight on the proposed federal plan of investigation of the livestock industry and to outline a defense of the livestock interests in case it is held." This statement was incorrect, due to an error in telephone transmission.

Mr. S. H. Cowan, attorney for the National Livestock Shippers' Protective League, in a statement made today said that the item originally handled was incorrect insofar as it referred to the plan to fight the proposed federal plan of investigation of the livestock industry and to raise a fund for that purpose. Mr. Cowan explained that the league was an organization of practically all livestock shipping interests thru the leading livestock producers' associations for the purpose of making defense against advances in railroad rates and charges and securing the shippers' rights in matters pertaining to transportation of livestock products in the investigation ordered by the interstate commerce commission of all those rates in which the railroads will be on one side seeking advances and the shippers on the other side resisting and seeking in some instances a reduction; also a uniform shipping contract not limiting the carriers' liability. These matters are of the greatest importance and hence the organization was formed. It was deemed equitable to collect the funds to prepare and try these matters before the five percent increase was effective.

The organization and the committee have nothing whatsoever to do with any congressional investigation and it would be entirely foreign to its purposes. Neither was the subject at any time mentioned or thought of in the formation of the organization or at any committee meeting.

NEED PROFESSIONAL HORSEMEN TO BREAK ILLINOIS MOUNTS

BROWNVILLE, Texas, July 10.—First shipments of horses with which to equip the recently arrived Illinois Cavalry, many of which have been found to be unbroken to the saddle, has created a demand for professional horse breakers. While there are in Brownville district many vaqueros, or Mexican horsemen, the methods they use to subdue wild horses are not approved by army officers. Their method is to starve the animals to a low point of physical resistance before submitting them to the saddle.

The Illinois cavalry has many good horsemen, but not sufficient to break the mounts for service as rapidly as desired.

Lack of cavalry in the Brownville district is also said to be a subject of serious concern to army officers. At present there are but one regiment, the Third Regulars, to cover the entire 100 miles of territory assigned to General Parker's command.

Plan of Work Adopted

The plan of work adopted by the Women's National Committee is briefly: first, to get votes for Mr. Hughes during the next four months and secondly, after November 7th to help Mr. Hughes put thru those measures in which women are interested. The work will be carried on in both the suffrage and non-suffrage states. In the suffrage states the state organization will work directly with the men in the Hughes Alliance. In the non-suffrage states, the women will carry on educational work, cooperating with the men's organization to whatever extent this is practicable.

The campaign will be active and practical. It will include the regular news service on the campaign and the campaign issues and direct work in the various states with the state committee. The material issued by the Women's National Committee of the Hughes Alliance will be available for all Hughes campaign organizations.

MR. H. B. RANKIN'S LINCOLN'S RECOLLECTIONS ARE PRAISED

Review Refers to Writer as "Perchance the Last Witness"—Mr. Rankin's Mother the Confidant of Lincoln.

"Recollections of Abraham Lincoln," the work of Henry B. Rankin of Springfield, is received in the current issue of Unity, a non-sectarian religious weekly edited by Jenkin Lloyd Jones of Chicago. The review, which has the caption, "One More, Perchance the Last Witness," is as follows:

Robert Brown, in his "Death in the Desert," conceives of the "Loving Disciple" in extreme old age, being burdened with the thought that his passing would leave the earth without witness who could say, "I Saw the Master." With a sense of grave responsibility, fully realizing his inadequacy of strength, time and power to fittingly sum up the life and to transmit the final testimony, he grew reminiscent and freely talked to the little group of fugitives in the desert of that which he had seen, and part of which he had been.

So there comes to us in these Commemoration Days the previous "Personal Recollections of Abraham Lincoln," by Henry B. Rankin, from the press of G. P. Putnam's Sons, with an introduction by our friend, Joseph Fort Newton, to whose persuasion and inspiration we are probably much indebted for this volume.

Mr. Rankin writes from the serene highlands of seventy-nine years. Can it be that he is the last of that splendid band of nation builders who were permitted to share the toils, the inspirations of the great "prairie lawyer," as the Springfield poet, Vachel Lindsay, has called him. Menter Graham, John T. Stuart, Stephen T. Logan, Ninian Edwards, Lamon, Calhoun, Herndon, Bowling Green, Peter Cartwright, Dr. Allen, Leonard Swett, Whitney, Sibley, Douglas, Isaac N. Arnold, Lyman Trumbull, John Hay, Richard Yates, are all gone, and each one carried with him an unwritten and untransmittable record of their beloved companion, a comrade on the circuit, a fellow builder of Illinois. Of them, with them and for them always, but ever above them, he seemed somewhat aloof because the circumference of his life swung into reaches of spiritual territory unoccupied by his beloved and loving neighbors.

How precious these "recollections" are becomes apparent at once to the student of Lincoln's life when we remember that the author's mother was a teacher, companion and confidant of Ann Rutledge, and that Abraham Lincoln found in her a sympathetic adviser and hostess. The Rankin home was a shelter to the always striving but often puzzled and lonesome young man. Lincoln was twenty-six years of age when this "Harry" was born, but he was born in time to go fishing up and down the sluggish waters of the Sangamon, to go nutting along Wolf creek. He knew Clary's Grove and Sandridge. He came in time to know the Bowling Green home. He knew New Salem, the Old Mill and the Rutledge hotel. What is more, he read law under Lincoln and was one of the boys in the office of Lincoln and Herndon during the exciting days of the Douglas Debate and the presidential nomination and election. Fortunately, as these "Recollections" clearly show, he was a soul attuned to the higher emotions, enriched by a culture that comes from the child of refinement, the occupant of a home in which good books and good men and women were a part of the environment.

Many, perhaps most, of the admirers of Lincoln, even the would-be interpreters of Lincoln, needed this belated testimony of the normality, the sanity, the delightful humanness and every-day-ness of the real Abraham Lincoln of whom most of his biographers have been able only to give a cartoon, not a portrait, as storekeeper, postmaster, country surveyor and lawyer on the circuit.

It is good to have the story of Ann Rutledge at last told tenderly, reverently, and with the simplicity and sympathetic reserve which it deserves. It is good to have one of the best of Lincoln stories straightened out and told with charming detail—"When Lincoln Swapped Horses." It tells how the unknown surveyor dismounted, that the good country doctor might on the fresh mount reach the land office twelve miles away before the eastern "land shark" could enter his claim. And it is very good to have a just and discriminating word said for the sadly misinterpreted and much misunderstood Mary Todd Lincoln.

In chapter XIV on "What Religion Meant to Lincoln," we read in the lines what heretofore the sagacious student of Lincoln had to read between the lines. We find, of course, a nature too large for the creeds, ill adapted to the formulas and forms of the current Christianity but sensitive of things divine. A familiarity with the expanding thoughts and experiences of the world. He found spiritual nourishment in the words of Theodore Parker and Walt Whitman. He carried in his memory for fifteen years a phrase of the former which sprang to his mind in the great creative moments of the Gettysburg Address—"A government of the people, by the people and for the people."

It is refreshing to find a degree of newness, a real addition to the story of Lincoln in the way he brackets the great years in Lincoln's Illinois career between the "two great speeches," one of them for the first time brought out into the clear. The one in 1856 delivered to his old neighbors of Menard county in the court house square at Petersburg. For half an hour he faced silently the jibes, jeers, the cat calls, the derisive, who declared that "No damned abolition speeches could be made in Menard county this campaign." But the long arms finally commanded silence, the genial face invoked the neighbors' love and respect and the thrilling voice held them for two hours while he discussed the cause of "free speech," free soil, "free Kansas," and "free men." Here, according to Mr. Rankin, Lincoln delivered the second version of the famous "Lost Speech," made at Bloomington a few months before, when the republican party received its spiritual birth. This speech ultimately grew into the famous "A house divided against itself" speech delivered at Springfield some two years later. The other great speech, too little appreciated and too seldom studied, is the speech which "Unity" for many years has tried to couple with the Gettysburg speech, and which are companioned in bronze in the vestibule of the Abraham Lincoln Centre, the Farewell Speech given from the rear end of the train that was about to bear him on to the majestic destiny and triumphant tragedy away from Springfield.

Six years ago we welcomed the appearance of Joseph Fort Newton's book on "Lincoln and Herndon" as containing much fresh material and furnishing some important missing links which heretofore had had to be inferred. It was an invaluable contribution to the spiritual biographies of Abraham Lincoln as he measured up alongside of the ardent, well meaning, sometimes mistaken and misguided, but always loyal, William H. Herndon. If that book had not been probably this book would not have been made possible. Be that as it may, the long shelf of would-be Lincoln biographies is greatly enriched by the voice of this cultivated man, who was permitted to live so close to the heart and to feel so much of the spirit as well as to see so much of the life of his great tutor.

William Hunt, America's great artist interpreter, said that the intervening centuries had furnished no man great enough to understand and interpret Michael Angelo. Renan and others have called attention to the same great chasm between the Gospel biographers and their subject. The life of the Nazarene was too great, fresh and unique to be adequately interpreted by his contemporaries. Every student of Lincoln realizes that this is painfully true concerning the would-be lives of Lincoln. Well does this modest disciple say:

"An hundred years more may elapse before this life can find a historian large and keen visioned enough to write into the pages of history the full and correct proportions of Abraham Lincoln's life and service."

When such a man does arrive he will find these "Recollections" of Henry B. Rankin invaluable. They will modify, neutralize and eliminate many weary pages that have distorted the features of the real Abraham Lincoln in the necessary imperfect lines that have preceded it.

Charles E. Otis, St. Paul attorney, has written Mr. Rankin that thru his book he "has done a great service to the memory of Lincoln and to the country as well." In his letter Mr. Otis says:

"I have just read your 'Recollections of Abraham Lincoln' with great pleasure and satisfaction. Years ago, soon after its publication, I read Herndon and Weik's 'Life of Lincoln' and was not satisfied with it. It left a bad taste in my mouth and still I felt Herndon ought to know Lincoln, and so I assumed it must be all taken as truth."

"As to parts of it, I told my friends at the time that the truth is not always to be told and that some things found in these volumes ought to have been suppressed, at least not published. The insanity feature, Mrs. Lincoln's character and that Lincoln was an infidel (and therefore necessarily, in view of his public utterances, a hypocrite) as described by Herndon caused me a distinct feeling of regret."

"I am now glad to learn that Herndon could not, and did not, appreciate or know Lincoln. You have cleared up these matters most satisfactorily and with abundant proof in a thorough, lawyerlike manner. You have done a great service to the memory of Lincoln and to the country as well, and have shown beyond a question that he is and always must be considered the first American. No history of Lincoln should be read except in connection with your book. The labors of your green old age are crowned with success, and I thus personally desire to express my appreciation, gratitude and sincerest thanks."

JACKSONVILLE DEFEATED PEKIN MINERS IN NINTH INNING

Sunday's Ball Game About the Most Exciting of the Season—Final Score 8 to 7.

In one of the most exciting games of the season Jacksonville defeated the Pekin Miners at Nichols Park Sunday afternoon by a score of 8 to 7. It was a wild and woolly game with both teams using alternate brilliant and weird fielding.

It was a hitfest pure and simple with Jacksonville getting one more than the Miners. Schroeder for so many years an enigma to the locals, was touched for 14 hits. Schroeder has been playing first base most of the time this year and was not in his usual form. This is shown by the fact that he walked two men with the bases crowded. White did not have much to tool Pekin. They hit him hard and often and this coupled with errors by his support cost runs.

Each team had one big inning. With the score 1 to 0 against them in the fifth Pekin got busy and with the aid of three hits, a walk and an error chalked up four runs. This made it look like a victory for them but in the sixth the locals came right back and scored five runs off of three hits. Three of the runs came as a result of a cleanup much which scored three of the five runs.

Some of the most brilliant work ever seen was pulled off by the fielders of both teams and there was some of the worst work ever seen. DeFrates at third had two glaring errors but offset them with some wonderful stops and throws. Woodman in right field did some fast work and at the bat he was a while, getting three hits out of five times up and scoring four runs. Christopher also made a fine catch of a line drive off the bat of Jenkins in the third inning.

For Pekin Zimmerman ate up everything at first and McGinnal at second and Callahan behind the bat performed in sterling fashion. The score:

MURRAYVILLE BEATS PATTERSON

The Murrayville Ramblers defeated Patterson Sunday by a score of 15 to 4. Murrayville hit the ball hard and played a good game in the field, three double plays featuring the fielding. The star was Robins who played short for Murrayville. Allen pitcher for Patterson struck out 15 men but his support was poor and Murrayville hit the ball hard between the strikeouts. The score:

DENIES CLAIM OF DODGERS.

Cincinnati, O., July 10.—The claim of the Brooklyn National League Club against the Newark Club of the International League, was today denied by the National Baseball Commission. President Johnson of the American League, a member of the commission, refusing to concur. The commission however, did allow the Brooklyn club the difference between the amount received for the franchise of the Newark Club by the International League and the next expense incurred in operating the club during the year 1915 at Harrisburg, Pa., and Newark.

Miss Minnie Hanning and Mrs. Arthur Kiltz and baby are up from St. Louis visiting their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson of the vicinity of Berea.

New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves

No Odor No Smoke
No Ashes

Truly that is the housewife's idea of paradise. And those features are only a few of the many advantages of cooking with New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves.

No longer is it necessary for you to suffer from the intense heat of the wood or coal burning range long before you are ready to begin operations.

Just touch a match to the wick and your fire is ready when you want it.

You can have a slow fire or an exceedingly hot one; just as you wish.

You don't have to watch it either. The flame will not creep up or diminish.

The Long Blue Chimney

is the key to the efficiency of the New Perfection Oil Cook Stoves.

The flame never touches the bottom of the utensils. Every atom of oil is burned and converted into usable heat in the long blue chimney. No waste—no dirt—no odor. It makes your summer cooking easy. Write for booklet giving full description and prices of the various types.

CONFLICTING REPORTS OF BLACK RUST KEEP WHEAT MARKET NERVOUS

Bullish Tendency Predominates and Close is Strong at the High Point
With a Net Advance of 1/4 to 1 1/2 Cents.

Chicago, July 10.—Conflicting reports relative to the presence of black rust in the Dakotas kept the wheat market nervous today tho the bullish tendency predominated and the close was strong at the high point with a net advance of 1/4 to 1 1/2 cents with July leading at $1.08 and Sept. at $1.10.

Corn sold higher with a gain at the close of from 1/4 to 1/2 cent net with July at 78c and Sept. at 74c
@ 1/2 cent. Oats finished from a shade to 1/2 cent higher and provisions varied from unchanged to 1/2 cent lower than Saturday's last quotations.

Corn statistics in general were bullish but the black rust reports remained the principal factor in the day's trading and it was expected that the corn of trade directors would move an investigation into actual crop conditions. The strength held to the end of the session. Local cash sales of wheat aggregated 16-000 bushels.

Corn moved in sympathy with wheat tho in narrower limits. Good wethers reports failing to weaken the prices.

Cash houses were liberal takers of July corn and country holders sold freely on the advance while export demand helped to maintain the gains.

Hot weather reports with expected hastening of the harvest helped oats to reflect the trend of the other grains, high temperature damage in southern Illinois being feared.

Provisions were slow and weaker with packers being credited as important sellers. Lower live hog prices also contributed to the weakness.

U. S. INDUSTRIAL ALCOHOL SUFFERS DROP OF 21 POINTS

Call Loans Rise to Six Percent—Majority of Other War Stocks in Sympathy With Alcohol.

New York, July 10.—An extreme loss of 21 points in United States Industrial Alcohol, one of the better known war contract stocks, and a rise in call loans to six per cent a new high rate for the day to day accommodations since the re-opening of the stock exchange in December, 1914, were the outstanding features of today's nervous and feverish session.

The break in alcohol from 128 1/2 to 107 1/2 was almost steady but made greater progress in the final hour when the stock seemed almost without support. There was no official news to account for the severe reversal, but gossip ascribed the liquidation to cancellation of war orders and internal differences over questions of policy.

In view of the enormous disbursements connected with the mid-year payment of interest and dividends, together with the heavy income tax payments the six per cent money rate which applied mainly to belated borrowers, was not considered unusual.

Some intimation of the advance was contained in last Saturday's returns of local clearing house institutions, whose actual reserves disclosed a shrinkage of almost $36,000,000, bringing the excess reserves down to $52,546,060, the smallest total reported since the new method of weekly statements came into operation. A majority of the other war stocks were heavy in sympathy with alcohol, but recessions were relatively nominal. Motors for the most part were subject to additional pressure and United States steel receded a point on publication of the June tonnage statement, showing the first decrease in unfilled business—about 300,000 tons—in almost a year. Representative rails, particularly Reading and Canadian Pacific were heavy at times.

Sales of stocks amounted to 455-000 shares.

Speculative bond issues registered light declines on light offerings.
United States bonds were unchanged on call.

The Price Increases Next Month

THIS is the last month that you can get a National Twelve for $1,990.
Next month it will cost you more.

In spite of the fact that the National factory is now one of the largest producers of high-grade cars—and in spite of the fact that they delivered this year more than three times as many cars as during any previous year, it is impossible to continue to sell the National Twelve for $1,990.

Nor can National quality be reduced even the slightest degree. For, did not hundreds of National Twelve owners buy their cars on National reputation alone?

National Twelves are in daily service in every State in the Union.
These National Highway Twelve owners will tell you that they never thought it would be possible for such marked improvements to be made.

They bought "Highway" Twelves solely on the strength of the National name—when you buy your Twelve, you get not only this guarantee of one of the oldest, most reliable, most successful factories, but in addition you may know that National Twelves are rendering service, pride and pleasure to many of the most discriminating motorists.

National designs and builds its own Twelve-cylinder motors. Soon, motor or parts makers will be turning out twelve-cylinder engines by the tens of thousands, engines patterned after the Twelve pioneers.

Eventually you won't think of anything but the Twelve—but why wait?
Why not have the most up-to-date and most efficient car today?

Get acquainted with the National Highway Twelve. You're cheating yourself every day you put it off. It is America's best looking car.

Language of the Chest.
A doctor hears some curious noises when he places the stethoscope against your chest to test whether you are fit for the army or not. When the lungs are healthy a pleasant breezy sound, soft in tone, is heard as the breath is drawn in and expelled. If the stethoscope conveys to his ear a gurgling or bubbling sound the doctor knows that you are in what is known as the moist stage of bronchitis. In the dry stage of the same complaint the sound is a whistling, wheezy tone.

One of the signs of pneumonia is the soft crackling note that comes through the stethoscope. It is not unlike the sound that can be heard when your finger and thumb have touched a sticky substance and you first place them together and then part them, holding them close to your ear.

Doctors occasionally hear a dripping sound, and that tells them that air and water have got into some part of the chest where they have no right—Pearson's Weekly.

Historic Pavla.
Much history has been written at the quaint Italian town of Pavla, which is not so well known to the tourist as it should be. For 200 years, until Charlemagne overthrew them, it was the capital of the Lombard kings, the kings of that one time Teuton tribe of Longobardi who conquered Italy, only to be themselves slowly conquered and become Italians or, more accurately, Romanized. It is they who ruled over this great fertile plain between the Alps and the Apennines. In the church of San Michele kings of Italy were crowned a thousand years ago. Here two Germans at least—Henry II. (1004) and Frederick Barbarossa (1155)—received upon their brows that "iron crown of the Lombards" which conveyed the sovereignty of Italy—Argonaut.

Kew's Vindictive Will.
One of the most vindictive wills on record was that of the famous Lord Kew, a very wealthy peer of strict principles and acrid temper, who, having no wife or children to annoy, took it out of his brothers, nephews and other expectant kinsfolk by his carefully worded testamentary dispositions. One item, for instance, ran: "By a previous will I had left £50,000 to my brother John, but as he has sent his son to Oxford instead of Cambridge, contrary to my wish, I reduce the legacy to £500."—London Tatler.

The Garden Wall.
A wall is the finest thing a man can bring to his entourage. It should be of the same material as the house—stone, or stucco, or brick, or if the house is of wood, it may be of cobble, or it may be a graceful lattice, with a hedge planted against it. In old European gardens the wall is never forgotten. It is a part of the general plan, often containing the very house walls, always giving picturesqueness and privacy. Against it grapevines and small fruits are trained. It forms a shelter and a protection. It makes a home a man's own, and it is a convincing argument that it is built for permanency. It is looked upon as a heritage.

Walls with green things growing over them and slender gardens of old fashioned flowers creeping along them are much more interesting than fine gardens spread open, public park fashion. Who doesn't thrill at the occasional patch of color seen through a thick hedge, at the adventurous roses that clamber over a high stone wall? There is always an element of mystery, of remoteness, hanging about a wall of any sort—"The Honest House," by Ruby Ross Goodnow and Rayne Adams.

The "wickedness" of "Old Q." (the Marquis of Queensberry) has passed into a proverb, but two tales of his other traits may be quoted from Mrs. Jerrold's "The Beaux and the Dandies." One is that he "paid a doctor to keep him well, deducting fees when he was ill, and thus when he died left his physician his creditor for £10,000," and the other that "there was a popular prejudice against drinking milk in London at this time because it was believed that the duke bathed each morning in milk, which was subsequently sold to consumers."

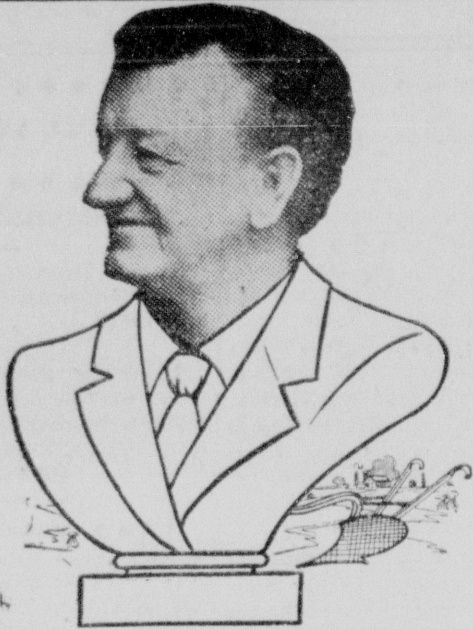

"Queer, isn't it, what difference unimportant little things in themselves will make?"
"Like what, for instance?"
"Like stripes on men's clothes. It makes all the difference in the world whether they run down or across."—Detroit Free Press.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.
Trichinosis.
The disease known as trichinosis, which may result from eating raw pork, is caused by certain round worms called trichinae. These are microscopic in size and infest the flesh of hogs.

"BOB" SEEDS.

Jacksonville Chautauqua, Saturday, Aug. 19, 2:30 p. m.

Bob Seeds says he has first lived his lectures before ever he tried to talk them. That is just why he has been able to reach the hearts and the understanding of the people—because he is talking about things he knows about and his hearers know it. One ounce of experience is worth ten pounds of theory. The Seeds' lectures are the stories of success. Hence they are optimistic and valuable. They contain the fundamental

HORSES EXCEED AUTOS IN VALUE.

William D. Hunt, Brookline, Mass., treasurer of the Massachusetts Protective Association for Horses, recently said that the value of the horses and mules in the United States is three times as great as the value of automobiles.

"If all the horses died tomorrow we should all probably starve to death," said Mr. Hunt. "We depend upon the horse for what we eat and for what we wear."

His statistics showed that as reported by the Department of Agriculture there were on January 1, 1916, 21,166,000 horses on farms, 4,565,000 mules and 3,182,709 horses in the cities, a total of 28,913,709. In 1890, in round numbers, there were 14,000,000 horses on farms in the United States and in 1900 there were 18,000,000. The value of the horses and mules in the country is $3,032,292,000. Mr. Hunt said that there are 1,800,000 automobiles in the country, and their value is $1,260,000.

CONVICTS GRADUATE

Kansas Prisoners Took Study Courses by Mail With Good Results

A dispatch from Leavenworth, Kansas, tells about an experiment made in that state with convict education which resulted well.

"Tonight thirty-one convicts at the Kansas penitentiary will receive certificates of graduation from the Kansas State Agricultural college.

"President H. J. Waters of the agricultural college will deliver the commencement address and several other professors of the college are expected to be present and speak to the graduates. Warden J. K. Codding and Chaplain Harmon Allen, superintendent of the state prison school, will also be on the program.

"Since last October the thirty-one convicts have been devoting their evenings to study, thru the extension department of the agricultural college under the auspices of the trades school conducted at the prison under Chaplain Allen. The convicts took courses in steam and electrical engineering, carpentry, agricultural and motor-car engineering, and blacksmithing.

"All the prisoners heard the baccalaureate sermon Sunday. The speaker was an ex-convict, one who has made good on the outside. He is Tom Brophy, who at one time was considered one of the 'bad men' of the prison. Given a proper chance, however, he made 'good,' became editor of the prison paper and preached the doctrine of 'honor' among convicts and has done much for prison reform. Field day exercises were held yesterday, the graduates taking part in races and other events and at night a banquet was given."

Misses Iva and Louise Brown were city arrivals yesterday from New Berlin.

MARION REDBURN DIED
AT SPRINGFIELD HOME.

Deceased Was a Brother of Elisha Redburn of This City.

The death of Marion Redburn of Springfield occurred Saturday afternoon at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. George Figueroa, also of Springfield, according to word received here today by Elisha Redburn brother of the deceased.

Mr. Redburn has been a resident of Illinois all his life and was born near Mt. Vernon. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Redburn, natives of Virginia. While a mere child he ran away from his home and enlisted in the Thirty-second Illinois infantry, Company H. He spent three years in service and at the end of the war received his honorable discharge. He was engaged in the battle of Appomattox, the closing battle of the war and witnessed the surrender of General Lee to General Grant.

A short time after his return home he married Miss May Summer, who died twenty-five years ago. He was again married to Mrs. Rhoda Jackson of Mt. Vernon and there they resided until 1912 when they moved to Pensacola, Fla., for his health. They remained there a year and then moved to Springfield.

Mr. Redburn is survived by his wife, two sons and four daughters: Charles of Springfield, Homer at home, Mrs. Benjamin Maxey of Mt. Vernon, Mrs. Benjamin Hunt of Canton, Mrs. George Figueroa of Springfield, and Miss Hettie at home. He is also survived by six brothers, Thomas of Blueford, Elisha of this city, William of Dix, Willis and Perry of Kansas, and Charles of San Antonio; one sister, Mrs. Mary Creamer of Louisville; one half sister, Mrs. Jessie Gray of Blueford; his stepmother, Mrs. Mitchell of Eureka Springs, and ten grandchildren.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Megginson Gives Slumber Party.

Miss Clara Belle Megginson of Woodson gave a slumber party at her home Monday evening in honor of Miss Anna Brusch of Bloomington. The evening was spent in music and games and at midnight a three course luncheon was served. The guests were: Misses Marie Megginson, Anna Brusch, Ellen Harney, Iva Lou Gibson, Franklin, Mary Glasgow, Grace Hoffman, Jacksonville, Lena Megginson and Clara Belle Megginson.

Celebrated Sixth Birthday.

William Ankrum celebrated his sixth birthday anniversary at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Garrison, 323 West College street Monday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in playing games and taking pictures. A number of the parents of the children also enjoyed the occasion. Light refreshments were served. Those present were:

Margaret and Lolagene Phillips, Elizabeth Graff, Dorothy Crim, Julia Williamson, Allene Ahlquist, Mary Annetta Siebert, Lucile Conkle, Helen Tredway, Corrine Ahlquist, Harold Ziller, Lewis Sims, Marten Graff, Clifford Siebert, Roy Conkle and Robert McGowan.

Mrs. L. B. Smith of Concord Celebrates Her 91st Birthday. Monday was the 91st birthday of Grandma L. B. Smith of the vicinity of Concord and Sunday a number of her children and grandchildren assembled to honor the event. Mrs. Smith is still in remarkably good health and fully enjoyed the occasion. The dinner was of course superb and much appreciated by all present. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are among the respected residents of the northwest part of the county and many will unite in congratulations.

The Philathea Circle of Central Christian church held their annual meeting at Nichols Park yesterday afternoon and evening. A busy as meeting was held after which a delightful lunch was served and games were played.

"WEEDS USED IN MEDICINE"

Is the title of a very interesting pamphlet recently circulated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. It illustrates and describes the medicinal qualities of roots, leaves and flowers of our most common weeds, which are nature's remedies for disease. From the roots and herbs of the field Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was originated more than forty years ago, and the demand for it has increased until it is now recognized as the standard remedy for female ills.—Adv.

PROBATE COURT.

In the estate of Frank Gordon, final report was received and estate declared closed.

In the conservatorship of Catherine Swain, the jury returned a verdict finding her a feeble minded person.

In the estate of Mrs. Grace Maupin the inventory filed by O. P. Conklin, administrator, was approved and a petition for the private sale of personal property was allowed. The inventory shows that Mrs. Maupin was the owner of 240 acres of land and quite an extensive farm equipment, together with live stock.

In the estate of Mary R. Rynders, the inventory, appraisement bill and petition for private sale of personal property approved.

In the estate of James M. Cook, the final report was approved.

WILLIAM HOGAN, JR. KILLED
SELF ON FARM NEAR CHAPIN

Young Man Fired Shot Gun by Pulling Trigger With a Rope—Had Suffered Mental Trouble.

William Hogan, Jr., son of William Hogan, prominent farmer near Chapin ended his life Sunday afternoon between the hours of 3:00 and 5:00 o'clock, by shooting himself thru the heart with a shot gun. The act was committed at the farm of John Reed, one half mile east of the Hogan farm.

Hogan was a young man of about twenty eight years of age. About a year ago he was a patient at the Norbury Sanitarium in this city. For some time past he has been despondent about his health and had threatened to commit suicide, but none of his family believed that he would do so.

Sunday afternoon the family of John Reed, who resides about one half mile east of the Hogan farm, decided to go to Merritt. Evidently Hogan knew of this and after they had gone he went to their farm and gained entrance to the house and procured the shot-gun. He then went to the buggy-shed and tied the gun to a frame work in the shed and fastened a piece of binder-twine to the trigger. Placing himself in front of the gun he pulled the trigger and shot himself thru the heart. About five o'clock in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Roy Adams went to the Reed farm to call on Mr. and Mrs. Reed. Upon finding the family gone they decided to wait until their return. Mr. Adams was strolling about the place when he came upon the body of Hogan lying in a pool of blood in the buggy shed. He saw that the gun had been discharged by the binder twine and that a suicide had taken place. A terrible gash was torn in the dead man's chest and his body as well as the ground about was covered with blood.

Mr. Adams immediately notified the coroner of Scott county who soon came to the scene. He impaneled a jury consisting of James Guinane, foreman, Jack Moody, clerk, James Moody, Edward Siebert, Charles Lynch and Charles Baker. The verdict rendered was that the victim had committed suicide by shooting himself with a shot gun, while suffering mental derangement.

Mr. Hogan is survived by his father, William Hogan, Sr., and three sisters: Marie, Catherine and Margaret, and two brothers, Joseph and Walter.

The funeral will be held this morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Church of Our Savior in Jacksonville. Burial will be made in Calvary cemetery.

LEDGERD BOY FALLS

AND CUTS HEAD

William Ledgerd, five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Ledgerd fell yesterday afternoon while crossing the tracks on East State street and cut his head rather badly.

Mrs. Ledgerd and the little boy were on their way to Jacksonville cemetery and had gotten off the car and were crossing the tracks. Mrs. Ledgerd did not notice the little fellow had gotten away from her, but he was running with some other children to get across the tracks. Some one called to them that the train was coming and William became frightened and looked around. As he did so his foot slipped and he fell striking his head on the rails and cutting it on the side. He was immediately taken to Passavant hospital where several stitches were taken.

RALLY DAY AT EBENEZER WELL ATTENDED SUNDAY

Large Percentage of Church Members Answered the Roll Call—Services Very Inspiring

The roll call of Ebenezer church was held Sunday morning at the regular church hour. The occasion was also that of decision day in two churches. Baptismal services were held and two were admitted to church membership. A solo was sung by Charles Rowe and Misses Grace Patterson and Ella Blackburn. Mrs. J. Edgar Martin composed a trio rendering a beautiful selection. The roll call was answered by some of the members by a verse of scripture and others made brief remarks. The first name on the church books was that of "Uncle" Ed Blackburn, who ranks as one of the oldest and most faithful members of the church. Mr. Blackburn in his remarks said that he could not help but think new of the old class meetings which were held in his younger days. He said that the younger generation had a great many things which were not to be had when he was young, but he did not know whether they were any better off than his generation had been. He gave excellent advice to the younger persons present and said that he hoped that they would all follow the teachings of Ebenezer's history and pulpit.

At the end of the services Frank Masters gave a short talk. Mr. Masters was for many years an active member in the church but of late he has lived near Lynnville and he cannot attend Ebenezer as often as he would like. He also remembered the old class meetings and like Mr. Blackburn said he had received a great deal of good from them.

A splendid percentage of members answered to the roll call and gave evidence that Ebenezer is still one of the leading churches in the Jacksonville district or indeed in the conference. The pastor's name is Rev. H. A. Sherman and the church is prospering under his ministry.

AUTOMOBILE AND MOTORCYCLE CLASH

John Carl, who is employed by Frank Winger on his farm north east of the city was riding his motorcycle Sunday afternoon and collided with an automobile belonging to Cherry's and driven by Earl Williams.

The Cherry cars were returning from a funeral and Carl had just met the machine driven by Oscar Ingram when he turned in on the road and the dust was so thick that he could not see the other car coming behind the first one. Neither did Williams see the motorcycle until within about fifteen feet of it. He then threw on the brakes and the car stopped but Carl did not see the car quick enough. He came head-long into the machine and jumped just as he hit the car. He landed on a bank beside the road with a gas cut in his head, while his machine was twisted under the car. The only damage done to the car was a broken glass in the headlight and some scratches on the fender.

Williams signalled to Ingram who came back and the injured man was put into one of the cars and taken to Passavant hospital. The accident was one on which blame can be attached to no one as the dust was so thick that neither could see the other one coming, and Carl considers himself fortunate not to have been seriously injured.

COUPLE WED TEN YEARS

PARENTS OF 19 BOYS
Corning, Ark., July 10.—Frank Scott and wife of Kensett have been married ten years. Nineteen boys have been born to them, all living, with the exception of six, who died at birth. Of the thirteen living there are three sets of triplets, and two sets of twins. The parents have been partial to the letter A in naming them. Ashbell, Archer and Austin are 4 1/2 years old; Arthur and Arnold, 3 1/2; Allen, Almond and Albin, 2 1/2; Alfred, Albion and Adolph, 18 months, and Abel and Abner, 6 months.

ROW AT MEREDOSIA BRINGS SERIOUS CHARGE

Leonard Floyd in Jail Charged With Assault to Commit Murder.

Leonard Floyd is in the county jail charged with assault to commit murder as the result of a free for all fight which occurred at Meredosia between members of the Atterberry Bros. show and a number of Meredosia young men. One of the showmen received a fractured skull and is in a serious condition and it is alleged that Floyd is the one who struck him.

Atterberry Bros. have a show which gives performances in Meredosia. On Saturday evening Floyd in company with J. B. Edlin and a number of young men visited the show and Floyd is alleged to have assaulted Mrs. Atterberry. She called her husband out but was unable to identify the one who made the remark. Atterberry is alleged to have remarked that it probably was "One of those river rats." He was promptly knocked down by Edlin. The showmen rushed to the aid of Atterberry and others to assist Floyd and Edlin and the free for all resulted. Stones, bricks and clubs were used and one of the showmen was struck with a stone or brick and his skull fractured.

Meredosia authorities arrested five of the boys and they appeared before Justice Ritscher and pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace and were fined to the amount of $50.70.

Edlin later swore out warrants against the Atterberry Brothers but they were set aside by States Attorney Hargrove. State warrants were then sworn out against Floyd for assault to commit murder and against Edlin for assault and battery. Edlin's case was settled and Floyd was sent to jail, in default of bond in the sum of $500.

REV. J. P. HILLERY CELEBRATES 84th BIRTHDAY

A delightful reception was held yesterday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Hopper on North Diamond street, the occasion being the eighty-fourth birthday of Mrs. Hopper's father, Rev. J. P. Hillery. About forty guests were present and a musical program was enjoyed given by Miss Ruth Mendel and Mrs. E. W. Cantasy. Miss Mendel is from Emporia, Kansas, and is a grand daughter of Mr. Hillery. During the evening refreshments were served and the occasion was one of rare pleasure. Dr. Harker made appropriate remarks during which he presented Rev. Mr. Hillery with a combination cane and umbrella which was a token of esteem from the Methodist ministers of the city. Mr. Hillery is one of the aged residents of Jacksonville and he still keeps his health in a remarkable manner. All present at the reception as well as many others join in wishing him many happy returns of the day.

NOTICE

Anyone employing Earl Martin, a minor, will be required by law to pay his wages to his mother, Ada Clayton.

DEATH OF LOUIS C. BARRETT

Many citizens of Jacksonville will hear with regret the death of Louis C. Barrett, which occurred July 2nd, at Belmont, Cal. He was 84 years of age. Mr. Barrett was a conductor on the Wabash for years. He then went to the Altton, and had one of the most serious wrecks on that road, near Berdan, about 1889. Afterwards he was on the Jacksonville South Eastern and went from here to California a number of years ago. Mr. Barrett married Miss Louisa Richards, sister of Geo. M. Richards, early settler. The Barretts lived last in the home where the Public Library is now. They were members of Westminster church. They had a son and a daughter, Miss Nellie.

FORMER RESIDENT DEAD AT HOME IN SPOKANE

Mrs. Julia Reaugh Had Lived Long And Useful Life—Funeral Will Be At Murrayville Thursday.

Mrs. Julia A. Reaugh died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. E. Cline, in Spokane, Wash., Saturday night, a telegram with this information having been received by relatives Sunday. Mrs. Reaugh, who was eighty three years of age, had spent the greater part of her life in Morgan county, altho she has been a resident of Spokane for the past three years. Mrs. Reaugh's maiden name was Julia Anderson and she was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Anderson, who died a great many years ago.

Mrs. Reaugh was married about 1851 to Oliver P. Reaugh and their home was established in the Murrayville neighborhood. They were very active in the organization of the Presbyterian church there and among the firmest supporters of the organization. Subsequent to the death of Mr. Reaugh in 1875 Mrs. Reaugh removed to Jacksonville and her home was established at 517 West College avenue. Subsequent to becoming a resident of this city, Mrs. Reaugh united with Westminster Presbyterian church and was an active worker in the church as long as her health would permit her attendance. The deceased was a woman of strong Christian character and her long life was one of great usefulness, marked by devotion to family and friends.

For some months Mrs. Reaugh has been in failing health but the seriousness of her condition was not realized here until the telegram came Saturday stating that the end could not be far distant. The deceased is survived by one daughter, Mrs. A. E. Cline, of Spokane, and one son, Thomas Reaugh of this city.

Four children preceded Mrs. Reaugh in death. In addition to her son and daughter she leaves seven grandchildren and six great grandchildren; also two half brothers, Milford Anderson of Waverly, and William Anderson, living in Colorado.

The remains are expected at Murrayville on the 6 o'clock train Thursday morning and the funeral will be held at Murrayville Methodist church at 2 p. m., Thursday. Burial will be at Anderson cemetery four miles east of Murrayville.

ANNOUNCEMENT

WILLIE GRAY AGAIN IN TOILS OF THE LAW

Willie Gray seems to have a hard time keeping out of the toils of the law. Willie has a penchant for picking up things that belong to other people. Willie, according to the police and Jesse Russell, lifted a set of harness, an overcoat, several saws and a bell. As no one ever heard of Willie doing any work it does not appear what he wanted with the saws. Neither can one figure out what he wanted with the bell for most of his work is done without a crash of cymbals and the ringing of bells. The harness Willie sold to Joe Mendonsa. He swears he doesn't know anything about the other articles. He was taken before Justice Dyer and waived examination and was held to await the action of the grand jury.

Friends of Miss Beaula Cordrey announce yesterday that she has been visiting friends in the country the past few days and is now at her home, 723 East North street. There were some unpleasant rumors afloat a week ago that Miss Cordrey had left the city. The fact, as mentioned above, is that she has returned from a visit and has resumed her position in the telephone office.

Miss Florence McKnight spent Sunday in Pittsfield visiting her parents.

EAST COLLEGE AVE., RESIDENTS WANT RELIEF FROM DUST

Asks Council to Oil by Special Assessment — Merchants Granted Right to Use Streets for Special Home Coming Week.

The Monday session of the city council was quite uneventful. Mayor Rodgers is out of the city for a week and Commissioner Widmayer presided in his stead. Commissioner Cox is also out of the city, so that the roll call showed only Commissioners Martin, Widmayer and Vasconcellos present. A petition was filed signed by residents of East College avenue asking that the city take steps to require the oiling of that street. The petitioners stated that because of vacant lots there the cost of oiling was too heavy for the residents. They related that East College avenue is used to a great extent by auto drivers who approach Jacksonville on the Springfield road and now the dust is almost unbearable.

Petition For Relief From Dust
The petition had the following signatures:

Philip Schultz, Mrs. J. O. Arter, Mrs. Dwyer, Mrs. William Hunter, J. Mikesell, Susan Cohagan, William S. Lorton, A. B. Kent, E. T. Busby, F. C. Shelburn, Mrs. Henry Thorne, George Brown, Arthur Scott, Charles Kafferty, Mrs. A. H. Bennett, J. M. Grady, Mrs. A. Van Hynning, J. F. Brown, G. A. Smith, L. W. Maguire, A. E. Amant, George W. Vanzandt, F. E. Lochleiter, Mrs. Mart. Andrew, Marion Brokaw, James Daring, E. K. McCurley, Jesse Mounts, James Malory, Henry Harold, William Burton, B. M. Lacey, C. E. Allen, A. H. Atterton, Philip Schulz, Jr., W. E. Clemens, A. R. Myrick, R. Vaughn.

Mr. Martin asked City Attorney Reeve if it would be possible to require oiling by special assessment and Mr. Reeve's opinion was that this work could not be done in this manner. The city attorney's opinion is that any improvement provided for under the public improvement act must be of a permanent character and this did not apply to oiling or sprinkling. The petition was referred to Commissioner Cox and City Attorney Reeve to investigate and report.

Mr. Reeve reported that the railroad objections to the payment of park tax had been overruled by Judge Thomson in the county court. Mr. Vasconcellos reported some repair work as completed at the north side pumping station. Mr. Martin made report of securing a new horse for the fire department, one of the older horses being given in the exchange.

Merchants Plan Special Week

Jay Rodgers, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, in behalf of the retail merchants, asked the use of the square and adjacent streets for a homecoming week to be given here in October. The petition was granted. Mr. Rodgers said that all plans had not been completed but that the purpose of the merchants was to arrange a program for a series of days which they thought would be interesting to residents of the country district and to former residents of Jacksonville. The idea is to have booths and exhibits of various kinds, with a number of entertainment features. The council then adjourned, and the board of local improvement held a session. This was for the purpose of recommending to the council the passage of an ordinance providing for the paving of Prairie street. After this formality the council again went into session and the ordinance for the Prairie street tarvia pavement was given the first reading and laid over under the rules.

Paul Samuel was present as attorney for Roland Stice and asked that the council make an early payment of $258, as this is the amount of the doctor and hospital bills incurred when Stice had his right hand crushed at the north side station. This matter is in the hands of Mr. Widmayer and City Attorney Reeve for settlement.
